Fall 2015

Autumn

Don't you just love Autumn? The bright reds and golds of the leaves, the smell of a wood fire, the warm days and cool nights evoke a feeling of nostalgia. Perhaps some of you remember this poem by George Cooper from your youth.....

October's Party

October gave a party;
The leaves by hundreds came -
The Chestnuts, Oaks and Maples,
And leaves of every name.
The Sunshine spread a carpet,
And everything was grand,
Miss Weather led the dancing,
Professor Wind the band.

The Chestnuts came in yellow,
The Oaks in crimson dressed;
The lovely Misses Maple
In scarlet looked their best;
All balanced to their partners,
And gaily fluttered by;
The sight was like a rainbow
New fallen from the sky.

Then, in the rustic hollow,
At hide-and-seek they played,
The party closed at sundown,
And everybody stayed.
Professor Wind played louder;
They flew along the ground;
And then the party ended
In jolly "hands around".

Things to Ponder...

A lovely little girl was holding two apples with both hands.

Her mum came in and softly asked her little daughter with a smile; "My sweetie, could you give your mum one of your two apples?"

The girl looked up at her mum for some seconds, then she suddenly took a quick bite on one apple, and then quickly on the other.

The mum felt the smile on her face freeze.

She tried hard not to reveal her disappointment. Then the little girl handed one of her bitten apples to her mum and said: "Mummy, here you are. This is the sweeter one."

No matter who you are, how experienced you are, and how knowledgeable you think you are, always delay judgement.

Give others the privilege to explain themselves.

What you see may not be the reality. Never conclude for others.

Which is why we should never only focus on the surface and judge others without understanding them first.

Those who like to pay the bill, do so not because they are loaded, but because they value friendship above money.

Those who take the initiative at work, do so not because they are stupid, but because they understand the concept of responsibility.

Those who apologize first after a fight, do so not because they are wrong, but because they value the people around them.

Those who are willing to help you, do so not because they owe you anything, but because they see you as a true friend.

Those who often text you, do so not because they have nothing better to do, but because you are in their heart.

Those who take out time to chat with you, does not mean they are jobless or less busy, but they know the importance of keeping in touch.

One day, all of us will get separated from each other; we will miss our conversations of everything and nothing; the dreams that we had.

Days will pass by, months, years, until this contact becomes rare...One day our children will see our pictures and ask "Who are these people?" And we will smile with invisible tears because a heart is touched with a strong word and you will say: "IT WAS WITH THEM THAT I HAD THE BEST DAYS OF MY LIFE".
